SUMMARY OF SERMONS.

Following is a summary of the principal sermons recently delivered in the United States and Canada by the leading clergymen, priests, prelates, religious teachers and professors of the Christian faith. In every lustance the text has been carefully read and abbreviated.

THE ESSENTIAL FORCE.—Belief is the essential force of all religions.—Rev. W. D. Williams, Episcopalian, New York City. LEADERSHIP.-The essential factor of human development is the leadership of great men.—Rev. L. R. Learned, Episco-palian, New York City.

TREASURES.—Treasures laid up in heaven while here on earth should win our hearts to heaven.—Rev. Mr. Taylor, Presbyterian, San Bernardino, Cal. PERSONALITY .- Personality is the persuasive element to which all else is sub-servient and secondary.—Rev. S. P. Cad-man, Congregationalist, New York City.

EVOLUTION .- All we cat, all we drink and all we wear has been evolved from the life of primitive man to its present per-fected state today.—Dr. Astor, Spiritualist, San Bernardino, Cal. THE AMERICAN CONSCIENCE,-The

THE AMERICAN CONSCIENCE,—The American people had consciences, which forced us to stand against oppression, despoism and starvation.—Rev. Lyman Abbott, Congregationalist, Brooklyn, N. Y. THE GOSPBL'S EFFECT. The gospel in its effect upon men is reconstructive.

And this process of reconstruction is the gift of vitalizing energy.—Rev. Dr. Rollins, Congregationalist, San Bernardino, Cal.

GOD'S GIFTS.—The goodness of God ought also to preven the taking of His name in vain. It is a commonplace that all good things come to us from God.—Rev. A. E. Myers, Collegiate. New York. WALKING WITH GOD .- "Walking with WALKING WITH GOD.—"Walking with God" suggests an association with Him in the daily round of life, forming and pur-suing one's motives and ideals in His sight.—Rev. Lester Bradner, Jr., Episco-palian, New York City.

RIGHT OR WRONG.—There can be no compromise for the Christian. An act 1s either right or wrong. It is either Christian or un-Christian.—Rev. J. B. Nies, Episcopalian, New York City. ACCEPTATION.—Man is sived not by what he renounces, but what he accepts. Accept truth—there shall be no error. Accept Table and there is no duringers.—Rev. Dr. Bristol, Methodist. Washington, D. C.

HONESTY.—Men differ about many things but they are united in their evilous of honesty. They believe that strict honesty ought to be the basis of business.—Rev. A. C. Dixon, Beotlat, Bracklyn, N. Y.

NEGLECT OF GOD'S DAY —Bleyeles on Sunday have diverted dreadfully the hearts of the people of God. No people on earth can neglect the observance of God's holy can neglect the observance of God's holy cay. Let us endeavor, as far as in us the control of God lies, to keep the holy sanctuary of God and preserve His worship.—Dr. S. M. Haskins, Episcopallan, Brooklyn, N. Y. PREACHING. — The ineffectiveness of preaching is not altogether the fault of mistisers. You complete of sermons and service dult. Did you ever think that there could be such a thing as a dry heart

er?-Bev. J. C. Adama, Universalist, Brook- THE REAL ESTATE CONVENTION

THE ROCK OF AGES,—Every object in nature speaks of Christ. His character, life and work. He is the Rock of Ages, the foundation of our hope the corner stone of the church.—Dr. McRiveen, Congregationalist, Brooklyn, N. Y.

LAWS OF MAN .- The laws of man and Go' are strengthened by that dramatic act colled uniting with the church and swear-ing fidelity to conscience and the highest Christian law.—Rev. N. D. Hillis, Inde-A POWERFUL BOOK.—There is a bo which has a power possessed by no other book, to make n en wise, for the life which now is and the life which is to come. That book is the Bible.—Rev. R. A. Torrey, Presbyterian, Chicago. THE NOBLEST TITLE.—"One is our Mester, even Christ." Of all the titles which men have sought or assumed, and with which mortals have been housed by their fellows, there is not a nobler one than Master.—Rev. Dr. Bristol, Mcthodist, Washington, D. C.

TRIALS OF LIFE.—The trials of life are preventive of evil. In all that God orders and in all that God does His reputation as a sood shepherd is at stake, and this reputation He will maintain in all its integrity.—Rev. Theo. L. Cuyler, Presbyterian, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Jones, Unitarian, Chicago.

OUR OUTCOME OF THE WAR.—The pulpit has always been instrumental in chaping the course of public affairs, and so when men of clubs, politics and business are uttering their sentiments in regard to war, the pulpit should give its words of direction and strength. We shall all have to bear our part in the burdens of this war. Our recompense will be the knowledge that we have been right. We took for the advancement of the kingdom of God and the progress of peace and right-coursess never known in the bistory of this world.—Rev. Wm. H. Albright, Congregationalist, Dorchester, Mass. tev. Wm. H. Allbright,

All Sorts of Suggestions as to What Should Be Done at the Houston Meeting.

Rock Island, Texas, October 29 .- Sinc. the call for a convention of real estate denlers of Texas was issued and so generally circulated through the enterprising press of the State some weeks ago numerous correspondence has come in from all sections from leading and experienced dealers. Some of them are inclined to out line in edvance some of the more importshould be tacked on to the business and of the convention. Of course we all expect to have a good time enjoying the hospitality of Houston. The Business Men's League, which so kindly and thoughtfully arranged to set spart December 6 as Real Etsate Dealors day, have also prepared many details for our comfort and entertainment. We "suif this in the breeze from afar off," and as has been predicted. Houston never has and never will have within her gates a congregation of citizens who will more fully appreciate her hospitality or make theings more lively than will the reality dealers coming thore a thousand the realty dealers coming there a thousand strong; yet with all this most of them, being thorough business men, are coming for business as well as pleasure.

It has been suggested by some that we go into permanent organization for the entire State. The many evils and misunder-standings between operators thomselves as well as dealers and clients, it is thought, could be averted if we had perma-THE GREAT TRIUMPH.—If it were something great and glorious for the gospet to triumph over the darkness of the manderstanding and the errors of the judgment, how much more to triumph over the bassions of the heart and the corruptions of the life.—Rev. George J. Mingins. Methodist, Asbury Park, N. J.

CHRIST'S CAREER.—The career of Christ constitutes a turning point in humanity. There is no other event from which the years may be counted. His life is the turning point in history. It is greatin it is consequences.—Rev. Dr. McCommell, Episcopalian. Brooklyn, N. Y.

Yoakum, Texas, October 28, Having ne-ticed the published call of Mr. T. J. Skagge of Rock Island, Texas, for a convention of realty dealers of the State to meet in Houston. December 6 next, 1 write to give my ton. December 6 next, I write to give my unqualified indersement to the same. I have long externationed the tiles that the interests of draiers as well as the general public and the State at large could be better served were the real estate desires and operators of the State comented together more closely.

We all must acknowledge that much of the developments in Texas are directly due

We all must acknowledge that much of the developments in Texas are directly due to the efforts of some real estate dealer or dealers. Even in our present disjointed and non-operating state we have accomplished much to push Texas to the front. How much more could we then do if thoroughly organized and presenting a solid front in behalf of any line of action we decided upon? As a forerunner I have to suggest that when we meet in your city at the suggest that when we meet in your city at the suggest of the end that many needed changes and reforms may be inaugurated. It occurs to me that if organization is had and a medium of co-operation established the exchange of business could be more readily and cheaply brought about, and I, for one, will be pleased to have a published expression from other dealers in this line. Very respectfully.

M. G. Ranney.

To the Editor of The Post.

Wallis, Texas, October 26.—Some days ago I saw in The Post a notice that Deago I saw in The Post a notice that December 6 had been set aside as Real Estate Dealers' Day by the Fruit, Flower and Vegetable Festival committee of Houston. I write to say that I consider it of the greatest importance that every real estate dealer in the State he there. I have for a number of years thought that State organisation on some proper hade about he effected, and I hape to see a Special preventation from every section, and support there, so that such ones be brought about astatescently to all. Respectfully.
